

Dr. Eric Kossoff
Assistant Professor of Neurology and Pediatrics
John Hopkins University

Specialty Areas: Pediatric Epilepsy, Pediatric Neurology

Director of the Johns Hopkins Bayview EEG/Epilepsy Program, Co-Medical Director of END

Dr. Kossoff received his medical degree from SUNY at Buffalo School of Medicine in New York. He went on to complete a residency in pediatrics at Eastern Virginia Medical School in Norfolk, Virginia. He completed a second residency in child neurology and a fellowship in pediatric epilepsy and clinical neurophysiology at The Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

Now an Assistant Professor of Neurology and Pediatrics at Johns Hopkins, Dr. Kossoff focuses on the diagnosis and treatment of childhood seizures and epilepsy, particularly treatments other than medications such as diet, neurostimulation and surgery. Specific interests include the ketogenic diet, the Atkins diet for children and adults, infantile spasms, hemispherectomy, the interaction of migraine headaches with epilepsy and Sturge-Weber syndrome.

Lecture: Pediatric EEG - Neonates to Toddlers.

- Click HERE

Certifications:

- American Board of Neurology and Psychiatry with special certification in child neurology
- American Board of Pediatrics

Institute of Health Sciences
1300 York Road, Building 190D
Timonium, Maryland 21093
Telephone: 410.821.9620, Fax: 410.821.9624

A visitor can access our entire site without providing any personal information at anytime. From time to time, Institute of Health Sciences and its affiliated hospitals and facilities conduct surveys that solicit certain types of information, such as a "snail mail" or email address. If you provide this information, Institute of health Sciences and its affiliates reserve the right to send you occasional newsletters and other information pertaining to education and health. If you ask us to delete your address from our lists, we will respect your wishes. Institute of Health Sciences will never give away, trade or sell the information we collect to a third-party, ever.

Institute of Health Sciences,
Quality Education... Lifetime Opportunity